

HUDDERSFIELD TOWN
FOUNDATION

THE BIG CHANT

Overview

- Key Stage Two Musical Chant Composition Competition.
- Theme is to Create new chants and to develop musical ideas.
- A partnership between Huddersfield Town Foundation and Musica Kirklees.

Musica Kirklees staff will work with existing Whole Class Ensemble Tuition pupils to create new football chants as a method of composition. The aim is to develop ideas with support from professional educators and to engage children in creative composition whilst supporting their local football team. Any school in Kirklees can also take part – entries are accepted from any KS2 class.

The planning and resources will be provided by Musica Kirklees staff. The entries must be submitted by the 15th February 2019.

- Chants can be up to 50 words long
- Chants can be rapped (non pitched) or sung to an existing or new melody

Competition for Pupils at Kirklees Schools

- One winner from each class will be put forward for the Kirklees-wide competition – this should be decided by the class with guidance from staff
- One overall winner in each year group (years 3 – 6) for all of Kirklees
- One overall winner from all entries.
- We can only accept video entries
