Learning 'A minor'

A MIN

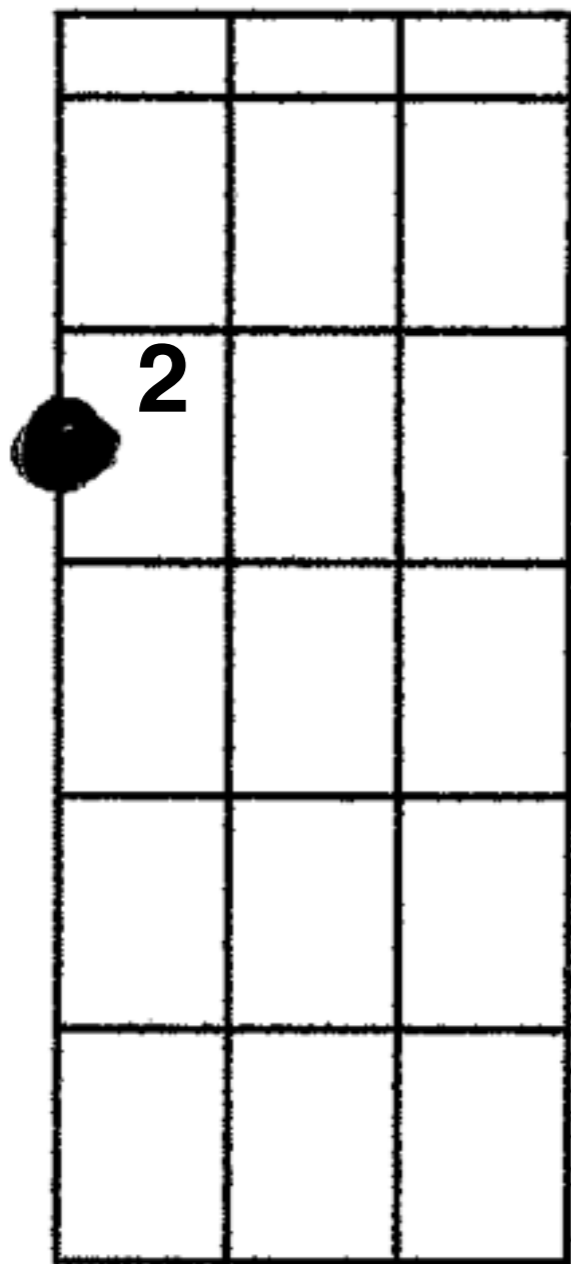

Remember to keep your thumb in the right place! Keep it low down, this means we can stretch our fingers round further!

Listen to your Aminor chord when you strum it. How does it make you feel? Then try C and F. How do these ones make you feel?

When we put the word 'minor' next to a chord, it tells us that the chord is going to sound quite sad or melancholy. Sometimes we shorten 'minor' to 'min', or even just 'm'.

The full name of 'C' and 'F' is 'Cmajor' and 'Fmajor'. Major chords sound happy and upbeat! We usually lose the 'major' bit when talking about these chords, just to save time!
